

---

Wanda Adams
Houston City Council Member, District D

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: R.E.S.P.E.C.T RALLY

"REMEMBER EACH STRUGGLE PREPARES ENDLESS COURAGE TOGETHER as we take it to the water!"

WHO: Fellow Houstonians, religious leaders and community leaders
WHAT: Respect Rally
WHEN: 12:05 PM
WHERE: Steps of City Hall, facing the reflection pool

Houston, Texas - July 22nd – This assembly brings special acknowledgment to the recent struggles of City of Houston Fire Fighters Paula Keys and Jane Draycott, who have suffered from incidents of racial discrimination and harassment. Wear the color of courage – RED! Ordained ministers will lead the prayer service. Off for the summer, bring your daughters with you for this day of unity and solidarity. Let us take it to the water as we renew our courage as women of purpose. This event will last only 30 minutes and in the event of rain the event will be moved indoors. Feel free to bring small umbrellas for shade from the sun and water for this brief event

Please join us in this extremely important event. The District D office continues in a quest to serve its constituent and be involved in circumstances that such as these that greatly effect those within the district and residents of greater Houston community.

For any questions, comments, or concerns please contact:

The Office of Council Member Wanda Adams
832.393.3001